

NANTUCKET ANGLERS' CLUB NEWSLETTER – October 2015

September RECAP

The Inshore Classic is ongoing until October 17th. Quite a few fish are being caught! The Kathy Kelliher Pond Tournament was a no-go as only 2 teams signed up. The Lema-Machado Scholarship Auction Dinner went very well thanks to all the volunteers on the committee.

OCTOBER EVENTS

The Cranny Cranston Beach Bluefish Tournament will be held on Columbus Day Weekend – Oct. 10-12. This is a two person team event for $100.00 per team. Each team must catch a minimum of 6 bluefish to qualify. Always a great time!

The Kid's Halloween party is on the Calendar for the 31st of October, but may be rescheduled due to other local events. I will let you know when I know.

The Inshore Classic Awards will be held on Oct. 17th at 4:00p.m.

Trivia Night will begin again on Saturday, October 24th – don't miss out – always fun! $5.00 per person.

The Club now has wifi available to all when visiting the Club – ask for the password at the Club

Please note: The annual volunteer duty schedule and the food spending minimum is over on October 31st. If you have not done your part, please check with the Club for a possible solution, otherwise, you will be billed.
